EXTRACT FROM MINUTES of the PROCEEDINGS of the COMMISSIONERS of NATIONAL EDUCATION at their Meeting on Tuesday, the 4th July, 1905.

Seventy-first Report of the Commissioners of National Education for the year 1904.

* * * * *

After further discussion the Bishop of Kildare and Leighlin moves :—

That the following portions of the Draft Report of the Commissioners for the year 1904 be omitted, viz :—From the beginning of the paragraph on page 9, beginning with the words "In our last Report," down to and inclusive of the paragraph on page 13, beginning with the words, "We therefore."

A division is taken on the Bishop of Kildare and Leighlin's motion, and the following is the result :—

For.

Sir Henry Bellingham.
Mr. Molloy.
Judge Carton.
The Bishop of Kildare and Leighlin.
Major Denne.

5

Against.

The Lord Chief Baron.
Rev. Dr. Evans.
Judge Shaw.
Rev. Dr. Wilson.
The Bishop of Killaloe.
The Resident Commissioner.
The Provost.
Lord Frederick FitzGerald.
Rev. Dr. Taylor.
Mr. Gwynn.

10

The motion is therefore lost.

Mr. Harrington does not vote.

The following statement is then handed in :—

"The undersigned Commissioners wish to put upon record their total dissent from the portions of the draft Report for 1904, which deal with Rule 127 (5), and with the amalgamation of schools. They believe that whilst the rule in question is desirable in the interests of the children whom it professes to serve, it will inevitably have the effect of lowering the salaries of existing teachers, or of forcing upon Catholic Managers a system of amalgamation which, as recent events prove, will be resisted all over the country.

✠ "PATRICK FOLEY.

"W. R. J. MOLLOY.

"HENRY BELLINGHAM.

"GERALD DENNE.

"R. P. CARTON.

"STANLEY HARRINGTON."

The draft Report is then considered, page by page, and it is ordered to be printed with some verbal changes and emendations.

The Lord Chief Baron, Sir Henry Bellingham, and Major Denne are not present when this order is made.
